

Part-time Adult Basic Skills/GED Instructor (starting hourly rate $25.50 bachelor's degree, $27.50 master's degree)

Position Summary: Provide instruction in Math, Social Studies, Science, and Language Arts to prepare students for the GED® Test.

Required Qualifications:

Bachelor's degree;

Classroom teaching experience with a minimum of 1-year experience teaching Adult Basic Education or GED required;

Must be proficient in math and be able to teach all subject areas using differentiated instruction; and Demonstrate use of incorporating technology to deliver instruction.

Experience working with diverse populations including: economically disadvantaged, at-risk youth, developmentally disabled, and/or addictions recovery desired.

Instructors must be willing to participate in required professional development and maintain accurate student records.

Please submit resume and cover letter to: rsburkowsky@aacc.edu