

Highlights from Day 4 of 2016 AEFL Week

September 29

MAACCE Members,

We are coming to the end of our AEFL week and once again our Maryland adult education organizations were engaged in the Go Green Campaign! Good work everybody! Thank you to the following organizations who sent in photos or videos today:

Allegany College of Maryland
Strong City Baltimore
Hagerstown Community College
Charles County Lifelong Learning Center
College of Southern Maryland Prince Frederick
Ben Franklin Center for Community Schools
LIFT Baltimore

COABE on the Hill Day was a success! Shelley Alter and Cynthia Campbell traveled to DC, visited four congressmen's offices, and met with Rep. Chris Van Hollen and Rep. John Sarbanes. Thank you COABE for setting up this wonderful opportunity to raise awareness of adult education.

A conversation with Dr. Bob Laubach - ProLiteracy Media.

Burger King brings attention to World Literacy Month.

The ABC 2 News segment aired tonight at 6:00 with Pamela Robinson, SBLC. See link here.

Thank you for the learner videos we received! This is important for our cause. We posted them in the Photo Album on the website and on social media. Be sure to catch them!

Check out the MAACCE website, Facebook page or the Twitter feed(#AEFLWeek, #MAACCEGreen) for photos and updates. We are looking forward to more events and photos from MAACCE members as they GO GREEN with their programs and learners. Send to MAACCE@gmail.com. Thank you,

The MAACCE Team
