

Maryland Association for Adult, Community and Continuing Education

Annual Conference
May 4 & 5, 2017

Register for the MAACCE 2017 conference! This is the Maryland-wide conference for professionals in:

- Adult Literacy Education and Adult Basic Education
- Adult English as a Second Language education
- GED® Exam Preparation, National External Diploma Program, and other high school completion programs
- Corrections Education
- Workforce Development
- Family Literacy

Join us for two days of great presentations, networking with other top professionals, over 60 workshops (see partial list on back), exhibitors, and award ceremonies honoring adult education professionals and adult education students.

Keynote Speaker:

Jayne Adelson-Goldstein—Rigor, Relevance, and Respect: 21st Century Adult Instruction. Jayne is an ESL teacher educator, consultant, materials writer and frequent presenter at national and international conferences. Her publications include Listen First, The OPD (Oxford Picture Dictionary), and Read and Reflect, and she is the series director of Oxford's adult level course Step Forward (second edition in press). She will be speaking on Thursday, May 4, 2017 in the afternoon.

Please register soon at www.MAACCEmd.org to take advantage of our Early Bird Registration Rate, which lasts until March 23, 2017. We have member, non-member, and student rates available for 1 or 2 day registrations. Lunches and snacks are included in the registration!

The Conference Center at the Maritime Institute

The MAACCE conference will be held at the beautiful conference center at the Maritime Institute in Linthicum Maryland, near BWI airport. Find out more at <http://mccbwi.org/whyccmit>

Questions?

Email us at maacce@gmail.com or visit www.maaccemd.org

Partial List of MAACCE Workshops!

- TABE 11&12 Has Arrived!
- Culturally Responsive Teaching
- Bridges to Opportunity
- Breaking Down Barriers
- Family Literacy Roundtable
- Flipped Classrooms
- Numeracy in ESOL Programs
- Understanding Academic Language
- Leading for Change in Literacy Learning
- Pursue Your Passion: Personalizing Learning for ELLs
- Professional Goal Setting and Transitions Beyond the ESL Classroom
- Using Writing Rubrics for Curriculum Mapping and as a Student Tool
- Entrepreneurs of the Future: From Prison to Small Business Owners
- The Frustrations, Findings, and Future of a New Workforce Literacy Curriculum: What We've Learned During the Pilot
- Soft Skills Matter: Discussion Strategies for the Workplace
- Beyond Civics: A Comprehensive Approach to Teaching Citizenship to ESL Learners
- Your Answer to WIOA, IET, and IEL/CE in One Comprehensive Programs
- Preparing Yourself and Your Adult Students for Success in WIOA: Teaching Best Practices in Career Building with WorkWise!
- Student Sharing Session - Workforce Programs
- Contextualizing ELA Classes to Better Prepare Learners for Career and Post-secondary Education
- An update on GED® Test Data and Performance
- Strategies for Accommodating Blindness or Low Vision in the Classroom
- Building a Community Using Effective Communication Skills
- "All In" for the GED: Applying Family Systems Theory Toward a Better Understanding of Family Expectations for Older Students
- How to Recruit, Retain and Redirect Volunteers in Adult Education

Early Bird Registration rates end on March 23, 2017!

Register now at www.MAACCEmd.org or email maacce@gmail.com today for a registration form.