

MAACCE INSTITUTE FALL REGIONAL WORKSHOPS

Saturday, November 1, 2014
9am – 2 pm
Howard County Library System, Miller Branch
Ellicott City, MD

MATH

TECHNOLOGY

WRITING

GED 2014
6th month review -
what students are missing

Geometry
New formulas and figures
Coordinate geometry

Advanced Algebra
Operations with polynomials
Inequalities
Quadratic equations
Linear equations

Jay Willetts

Technology integration
in the classroom

Sharing best practices and learner-centered activities

Exploring Internet online resources and teaching techniques

*Participants are asked to bring their own devices

Edouard Gusman

Writing tasks overview
Language Arts
Social Studies
Science

Skills strategies
Critical thinking
Writing

Rubrics overview

Helpful resources

Cynthia M. Campbell,
Ed. D.

Details:

- Math and writing sessions are two hour concurrent workshops with hands-on activities.
- Participants register for either math or writing and all attend the technology session.
- Continental breakfast is provided at 8:30 am and participants bring their own lunch.
- No cost for MAACCE members, $10 for non-members.
- Register early as space is limited: Email name, affiliation, MAACCE membership status, and which session (Math or Writing) to maacce@gmail.com
- Location of workshop: Howard County Library System, Miller Branch, 9421 Frederick Rd., Ellicott City, MD 21042